

Pitfall

Prevention

Over-automation too early

Start with human-in-the-loop workflows and remove oversight only after proving reliability.

Lack of guardrails

Implement output validation and action restrictions before production deployment.

Tool sprawl

Centralize approved tool catalogs with security review for new additions.

Poor cost visibility

Attribute costs to individual agents and set automated spending limits.

Treating agents as static

Establish continuous monitoring with scheduled retraining and prompt updates.